Freshers' Fair 2023 – Essential Information

1. Using your own electrical equipment

You may wish to promote your organisation through DVD, PowerPoint presentations or something similar at Freshers' Fair. Please be advised that you will need to bring your own equipment (laptop, plasma screen etc) including all appropriate cabling. We only supply the power outlet.

PAT testing

- Please ensure you bring a PAT certificate for all portable electrical appliances.
- Any equipment deemed unsafe or which causes the power to trip will be removed from use.

Sound levels

- Please do not bring your own sound equipment to the fair
- Local sound from CD or DVD is acceptable provided it is played through a portable appliance; however, you will be asked to reduce the volume if the noise level is deemed to be extreme.
- DJ sessions by prior agreement only in the main exhibitor halls.

2. Adherence to Students' Union policies

We ask that all exhibitors comply with the following:

- Equal Opportunities, Ethical & Environmental and Health & Safety policies – copies are available on our website www.brightonsu.com
- Brighton University's Smoking, Alcohol and Illegal Substances policies, also available on www.brighton.ac.uk
- Brighton Students' Union are committed to reflecting the contemporary student identity, which is about having great experiences and enjoying alcohol responsibly as part of an amazing night out

Guidelines for commercial stall holders

Brighton SU are committed to promoting a responsible approach to alcohol, and reinforcing this norm. In order to reflect the contemporary student identity, which is based on responsible alcohol consumption, all communications must:

- Concentrate marketing on the social and entertainments offer of the venue/event, rather than any drinks prices or promotions
- If alcoholic drinks prices are given then non-alcoholic promotions must also be displayed (these must be cheaper than the alcoholic options)
- Emphasise the entertainments offer by listing it before alcohol e.g. Come to Grad Ball and enjoy a 3 course meal with friends, amazing cabaret acts, photo booth, cocktail bar and more!
- Avoid making direct associations between the student identity and binge drinking
- Avoid using language which implies an irresponsible approach to alcohol, e.g. crazy prices, come and get trashed
- Avoid using images which portray or glamorise excessive alcohol consumption
- Posters/images much include the statement "Brighton Students' Union are committed to reflecting the contemporary student identity, which is about having great experiences, and enjoying alcohol responsibly as part of an amazing night out."

- Stickers and/or posters are not permitted on venue walls– however, you're welcome to bring pop-ups and decorate your stall space however you like. Please do not attach materials to ceiling panels.
- We ask that all exhibitors stay at their stalls for the duration of the Freshers' Fair

3. Making Freshers' Fair Greener

Brighton SU regularly reviews its environmental policy. We would like to ask exhibitors to help make the Freshers' Fairs less wasteful and more sustainable. Below are some things we'd like all exhibitors to consider:

- Use car shares or public transport to travel to the Freshers' Fair
- Keep the amount of leaflets and flyers to a minimum, aiming to have just one small leaflet per prospective customer.
- Think about the sustainability of your products – large volumes of disposable product should not be distributed.
- In order to reduce the environmental impact of the fair, plastic bags are not permitted from the Freshers' Fair in order to minimise the environmental impact of the event. Please use a recyclable alternative
- Be responsible for the collection of recycling and waste in your area.
- For exhibitors using power supplies, please switch off appliances when not in use.

Additional rules and guidelines for Eastbourne Freshers' Fair

- No food or drink is allowed in Greynore Hall – please don't provide students with drinks, sweets or food products that may be consumed whilst in the hall.
- No balloons are allowed

Please now read the terms and conditions on page 5 - 6 and sign and date page 2 and 6 to complete the agreement.

We hope you have a great Freshers' Fair and look forward to welcoming you.
